

Jody Dean, Celebrity Master of Ceremonies

Jody is an Emmy award-winning 35-year veteran of television and radio with a collection of some of the most prestigious awards in the industry.

A native of Fort Worth, Jody attended Paschal High School and Abilene Christian University. He began his career in 1973 at WBAP-TV Channel 5 (NBC5). Dean arrived at Dallas's legendary KVIL Radio in 1981, where he stayed for 13 years before moving to NewsRadio 1080 KRLD in 1994. He joined CBS-11 TV in 1995, where he hosted a daily talk show and anchored the noon and 4 o'clock news. During the course of his career he has covered or reported the biggest stories of a generation, and has been on the air in North Texas longer than any other active local broadcaster. He joined 98.7 K-LUV as morning host in June of 2005.
